

DOWNY WOODPECKER

Handwriting practice lines consisting of solid top and bottom lines with a dashed middle line. The page contains two sets of these lines, one set positioned to the left of the illustration and one set below it.

The image shows a handwriting practice sheet. It features a large rectangular frame containing ten sets of horizontal lines for writing. Each set consists of three lines: a solid top line, a dashed middle line, and a solid bottom line. In the top right corner of the main frame, there is a smaller, empty rectangular box. Additionally, there is a short horizontal line extending from the top left of the main frame.

Downy Woodpecker

Picoides pubescens

Twelve horizontal lines for writing, arranged in two groups of six, below the illustration.

This image shows a blank sheet of lined paper designed for writing. The page features a large rectangular frame containing horizontal lines. On the right side of the page, there is a smaller, empty rectangular box, likely intended for a drawing or a specific note. The lines are evenly spaced and extend across the width of the page, except for the area occupied by the box on the right.
